			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Suggest a meaning for the story Recognise and talk about the role God plays in stories from the Jewish Bible 				<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Write a factsheet about the ways Jewish people responded to the prejudice and the hatred of the Nazis
Specific Skills Children should be able to gain and deploy skills for engaging with religion and worldviews.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Know some similarities and differences between different religious and cultural communities in this country, drawing on their experiences and what has been read in class. Talk about the lives of the people around them and their roles in society. Recognise that people have different beliefs and celebrate special times in different ways. Understand the past through settings, characters and events encountered in books read in class and storytelling 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Express an idea about why festivals and celebrations matter Respond to the experiences and emotions of festivals (joy, memory, community) Ask questions about how we show we care for others Express an idea of their own about a religious story of caring Ask questions about Jesus' 'special powers' Find out more about Jesus, inferring a simple idea from a story Ask questions about what happens and why in holy buildings Express an idea about why some people go to holy buildings 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Respond to the ideas that Moses and Saint Peter were guided by God or given wisdom by God Find out more about Jewish beliefs and ways of talking about God Ask questions about leadership and suggest answers Give an example of what makes a great leader Recount how a young person is welcomed into the Christian community Give an example of their own community life and say why it matters: what groups do you belong to? Respond to big ideas and beliefs in the stories: Does God forgive? Does God rescue? Does God create? Give at least two examples of Bible characters who 'got it wrong' and say what happened in the story. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ask questions about leadership and inspiration Express their own views on who is inspiring and why List similarities between different religious festivals Express their own ideas about deeper meanings of these festivals Explain what matters about worshipping God to Muslims Respond thoughtfully to beliefs and ideas about prayer Ask and answer questions about the different ways the religious buildings are used by communities and what makes them special Consider ideas such as 'prophet', 'patriarch' and 'messiah' 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Express why they hold their own views about life after death Express reasons why they would choose their own pilgrimage if they could Explain what matters about worshipping gods and goddesses to Hindus Consider the variety of ways that a spiritual journey can change people's lives Consider why music matters in human and religious life Express why pieces of music are spiritual Express some 'deeper meanings' of the religious festivals Explain similarities and differences between Hindu festivals 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Clearly express reasons why they hold their own views about questions with God Explain what matters about worshipping God to Sikhs Consider varied answers about what makes a person inspiring Explain what matters about the lives of inspirational leaders: Do we all need role models? Do the leaders exemplify their beliefs? Explain thoughtfully their own ideas about the relative value of worship and holy buildings and charity and compassion Apply the ideas of worship and service to key questions Consider varied connections between worship and music Ask questions about the values of the 5 Ks 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Consider varied answers to questions about justice, fairness, human rights and environment Compare global aid charities and explain their own ideas about the work of some global development charities Consider varied answers about the value of holy writings Explain with reasons why believers revere their holy texts Consider varied answers to questions about building peaceful families and communities Apply the ideas of tolerance and respect to some tensions in community relations Explain why it is important to remember examples of hatred and prejudice, and why 'never again' is an important idea Explain what matters about remembrance of those who died and those who survived and the idea of 'upstanders'
Possibilities and Communication Questions to support how children can express different possibilities and communication.	Express ideas about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Why do people celebrate in different ways? What places are special to people and why? How do we treat people with respect? What is similar and what is different between Christmas and Lunar New Year? 	Express ideas about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Why/how does this benefit their life? Why do religious festivals matter? What life experiences can this give to a person? What happens in a holy building? Why do people go to holy buildings? 	Express ideas about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Why is leadership important? What can leadership do for a community? Which groups do you belong to? Which groups could you belong to? How can leaders 'get things wrong'? 	Express ideas about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What inspires leaders? What inspires you? Why are people considered inspiring? What makes different buildings special? Why are holy buildings different? How do people worship differently? 	Express ideas about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What happens after death? How do people worship differently? Why are gods and goddesses worshipped? Why are some pieces of music considered spiritual? What possible 'deeper meanings' are there for religious festivals? 	Express ideas about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What does worshipping achieve? What might people consider to be 'inspiring'? How do 'role models' inspire people? How can religion support charity within the community? What are the connections between music and worship? 	Express ideas about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What is justice? How does it look different around the world? What does charity look like in our local community? What is the value of holy writings? How does it inspire people? What do holy buildings provide religious communities with? What can we learn from mistakes?
